NOTE: The application fee must include fees for all applicable applications and reviews required. An application for construction of a residence, for instance, which does not meet setback requirements, will require a variance. Application fees would, in this case, include the residential fee for the square footage of construction ($50.00 minimum fee), plus the $50.00 fee for a residential variance, plus the $100 publication fee for the notice of hearing. If you have questions regarding the application forms or the fees, please contact Deborah Feldman, Zoning Administrator at 496-2312
